REGISTRATION, ENROLLMENT & WITHDRAWAL

Registration & Enrollment

Course Registration
Registration must be for a specified number of courses. Regardless of the number of course credits previously earned, degree candidates must elect at least the minimum number of three courses required each semester. The faculty adviser’s signature is required for the initial schedule each semester and for subsequent changes.

Course Cancellation
The University reserves the right to cancel any course for which fewer than eight students are registered or for other cogent reasons.

Courses That May Not Be Elected for Credit
No credit will be given (nor may a second grade be earned) for a course previously passed or for a course with content similar to one previously completed. (A list of such cross-listed courses is published in each semester’s Schedule of Classes.) In addition, courses that have been audited may not be taken subsequently for credit. Language courses that are below the student’s language placement may not be elected for credit unless, in extenuating circumstances, authorized by the language department chair (or program director) and the dean of the student’s college.

Military Science
In addition to electing courses for credit each semester, a student may elect the basic course in military science of the Reserve Officer Training Corps. Credit for one elective course may be granted for the satisfactory completion of the advanced course in military science; request for such credit must be made to the associate dean of the student’s college.

Auditing
By definition, it is not appropriate to enroll as an auditor for courses involving studio art, dance, sign language, independent study, thesis preparation, or for any course requiring extra time and attention from the instructor. Note that courses that have been audited may not be taken subsequently for credit.

Regularly enrolled, full-time undergraduate students may carry audits in addition to their regular course load without additional charge. For any audit by all other students, the course audit fee is charged. For full-time undergraduates, permission from the course instructor, the student’s faculty academic adviser and the student’s college academic associate dean is required. Selecting an audit when registering for courses is not allowed without these permissions. The only exception is when a student is required to take a course for audit as part of their major requirements.

The deadline to change a course grade option of audit to a letter grade or a letter grade to audit for full-time undergraduate students is the end of the fourth week of the semester. In either case, permission from the course instructor, the faculty academic adviser, and the college’s academic associate dean is required. If a change from audit to a letter grade results in the student being enrolled in more than 4.75 credits for the semester, approval to overload is required. If a change from a letter grade to audit results in the student being enrolled in less than 4.0 credits, approval for an underload is required. Students receiving financial aid who become deficient in total credits as the result of changing from a letter grade to an audit are responsible for contacting the financial aid office to discuss their status; they should do so prior to making the change.

Financial Obligations
To be admitted to any course, a student – whether a graduate or an undergraduate – must pay the semester’s bill in full or make satisfactory arrangements with the Office of Finance.

Several plans for payment of tuition and other charges are available. Students and parents receive information about these plans directly and make arrangements with the organization of their choice.

Adding & Dropping Courses
Students may add and drop courses, subject to space availability, during the first two weeks of the semester.

Withdrawal from Courses
Withdrawal from (Dropping) Courses
Students may withdraw from a course during the usual two-week drop/add period by filing a completed Drop/Add form with the registrar. If another course is not added, the remaining course load must be no less than the minimum required three course credits and normal progress toward the degree will be considered. Reducing the course load to three course credits requires the approval of the faculty adviser and academic dean. Financial aid packages are not likely to be extended or redefined to cover extra summers or semesters when the student elects a less-than-average course load, thereby requiring additional periods of enrollment. Questions concerning the financial aid ramifications of "less-than-average course loads" should be pursued directly with the Office of Financial Aid.)
After the usual two-week drop/add period, all course withdrawals must be approved by the student’s academic dean. In unusual circumstances, dropping a course may be approved through the fourth week of the semester if the student is still carrying three course credits; in two semesters, as exceptions to this four-week limit, dropping a course may be permitted through the 10th week of the semester. The grade of "W" is assigned for all such approved course withdrawals after the first two weeks of the semester.

Exceptions to these deadlines may be approved only if there are serious extenuating circumstances. The assistant/associate academic dean will consider information provided from appropriate professional resources in the determination of whether a student’s circumstances are extenuating. Poor performance, anticipation of poor performance, extracurricular obligations, changes in educational plans or interests, or the existence of extra course credits are not considered extenuating circumstances.

Course withdrawal policy for 0.25 and 0.50 credit courses

If a student drops or withdraws from a 0.25 credit course at any point in the semester they do not receive a grade of W; it is treated as a drop regardless of when it happens during the semester. A 0.50 credit course dropped or withdrawn by a student before the end of the four-week withdrawal period does not receive a grade of W.

If a student withdraws from a 0.50 credit course after the four-week withdrawal period ends, it will be designated with a grade of W; however, the W does not count as one of their two allowed 10-week late withdrawals.

Policy on Withdrawal, Leave of Absence & Reinstatement

Separation from Bucknell University

There are several reasons why a student may be separated from the University. The forms of separation recognized by the University include two general categories, Withdrawal and Leave of Absence, with the former denoting that the student does not intend to return to Bucknell, and the latter that the student does intend to return to complete their degree requirements. As defined below, several sub-categories exist within each category.

Students on any type of separation must leave campus within 24 hours of approval or notification of the separation unless otherwise directed by the dean of students. Students subject to any separation covered by this policy may not attend classes, participate as a member of a student organization or athletic team or be on campus for any reason without prior written permission from the dean of students.

No record of enrolled courses will be retained for separations that occur before the end of the second week of the semester. Separations after the second week but before the end of the fourth week will result in the recording of W (withdraw) grades for all enrolled courses. Grades recorded for separations occurring after this point are a function of the type of separation and are provided below. In all cases, the type of separation is not indicated on a student’s transcript.

Students withdrawn from the University will not retain access to their Bucknell (bucknell.edu) email; students on a leave of absence will retain such access.

Separations occurring after the start of the semester will result in the loss of some or all tuition (see Credit and Refund Policy [https://www.bucknell.edu/azdirectory/bursar-services/financial-policies/]) and Finance and Financial Aid Information [http://coursecatalog.bucknell.edu/financialaidinformation/]). Students who receive financial aid must contact the Office of Financial Aid at both the time of the separation and on or before the March 15th prior to returning to Bucknell. Failing to do so may result in a loss of financial aid.

WITHDRAWAL

Voluntary Withdrawal – a separation denoting that the student has decided, for any reason, to leave the University without the intention to return to Bucknell at a later date. Students considering withdrawing from Bucknell should contact the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college or the dean of students to initiate the process. To complete this process, the student must complete a form that is available online at a link that can be obtained from the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college or the dean of students. A voluntary withdrawal is not effective until approved. Students may not voluntarily withdraw in order to avoid student conduct, academic misconduct or other disciplinary proceedings.

A voluntary withdrawal after the first two weeks of classes of the semester (after the drop-add period ends) will result in the recording of a grade of W for each course. Grades of W will not be factored into the student’s GPA.

A student who has withdrawn from Bucknell, enrolled as a full-time student at another institution, and wishes to be considered for return to Bucknell must apply using the same process as students applying to transfer to Bucknell. A student who has withdrawn from Bucknell but has not enrolled as a full-time student at another institution and who wishes to be considered for reinstatement to Bucknell must submit a written request to the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college. This request must be received before June 1 for a fall semester reinstatement, before Nov. 1 for a spring semester reinstatement, and before March 1 for a summer session reinstatement.

Mandated Withdrawal (Expulsion) – a separation imposed by the University for disciplinary or academic reasons with the understanding that the student may not return to the University. The record of such a separation is maintained in the appropriate academic dean’s office, the Office of the Dean of Students, and the Office of the Registrar.
A mandated withdrawal (expulsion) incurred after the first two weeks of classes of the semester (after the drop-add period ends) will result in the recording of a grade of W for each course. Grades of W will not be factored into the student’s GPA.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Personal Leave of Absence – a one-semester separation denoting that the student has decided to leave the University for personal or other non-health reasons, including, e.g., financial, military service, missionary service, an internship, or assessment of future educational and professional plans.

Students may not take a personal leave of absence to avoid student conduct, academic misconduct or other disciplinary proceedings. A student on a personal leave of absence will receive reinstatement materials from the University during the semester on leave.

Personal Leave of Absence prior to the start of the semester

A student who wishes to temporarily interrupt studies following the end of a semester and prior to the start of the next semester should contact the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college or the dean of students to initiate the process for a personal leave of absence.

The personal leave of absence will be for one semester. A student on leave will not be considered enrolled at the University during the period of the leave. A student may be approved for only one personal leave of absence in any 12-month period.

Applications for a leave of absence should be submitted by Aug. 1 for the fall semester and by Jan. 1 for the spring semester unless there are circumstances beyond the student’s control. To complete this process, the student must fill out a form that is available online at a link that can be obtained from the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college or the dean of students.

During a personal leave of absence, students wishing to take academic courses elsewhere to transfer credits back to Bucknell must receive prior written permission from the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college. No more than two course credits per semester will be approved.

Students on a personal leave of absence who fail to return to the University at the end of the approved personal leave of absence will be placed on an extended leave of absence, which is described below, with an effective date reverting to the last date of attendance at Bucknell. If a student intends to enroll as a full-time student at another institution and not return to the University, the student must contact the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college or the dean of students to initiate a voluntary withdrawal from the university.

Personal Leave of Absence during the semester

A student who seeks a personal leave of absence after the semester has started should contact the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college or the dean of students. A personal leave of absence taken after the first two weeks of classes of the semester (after the drop-add period ends) will result in the recording of a grade of W for each course. Grades of W will not be factored into the student’s GPA.

A personal leave of absence must be initiated on or before the last day of classes for the semester. To complete this process, the student must fill out a form that is available online, or from the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college, or from the dean of students. The timeline related to reinstatement following a personal leave of absence taken during the semester must be approved by the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college or the dean of students.

Extended Leave of Absence – a separation imposed by the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college, which denotes that the student did not return from a personal leave of absence after one semester. This type of a leave of absence can occur only before the start of the semester.

During an extended leave of absence, students wishing to take academic courses elsewhere to transfer credits back to Bucknell must receive prior written permission from the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college. No more than two course credits per semester will be approved.

A student on an extended leave of absence from the University must apply for reinstatement by submitting a letter of intent to the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college. The deadline for submission of this letter is June 1 for a fall semester reinstatement, Nov. 1 for a spring semester reinstatement, and March 1 for a summer session reinstatement. Such students may be required to provide additional documentation as deemed appropriate.

Health Leave of Absence – a separation denoting that the student has decided to leave the University for health reasons during the semester, with this decision supported by Bucknell Student Health or the Counseling & Student Development Center. If a student considers a leave between semesters, see Personal Leave of Absence Policy.

Bucknell Student Health or the Counseling & Student Development Center will consider supporting a student’s request for a health leave of absence during a semester based on physical health/illness or mental health reasons, respectively, and if the student has been actively engaged in treatment/counseling with one of these offices or another clinician/agency. If a student has not been engaged in treatment/counseling, Bucknell Student Health or the Counseling & Student Development Center will assist the student in efforts to obtain the necessary assessment. This assessment might be with Bucknell Student Health or the Counseling & Student Development Center, with a provider/clinician in the community, or with a provider/clinician at home. A student must initiate a health leave of absence at least two weeks before the last day of regular classes and have all supporting documentation to Bucknell Student Health or the Counseling & Student Development Center by the last day of classes. A health leave of absence after the first four weeks of the semester typically requires the student’s absence from the University for at least one complete regular semester before consideration will be given for reinstatement. This is intended to allow the student adequate time to address the issues that necessitated the health leave of absence.

A student on a health leave of absence from the University must apply for reinstatement by submitting a letter of intent to the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college. The deadline for submitting a letter of intent is June 1 for a fall semester reinstatement, Nov. 1 for a spring semester reinstatement, and March 1 for a summer session reinstatement. Shortly after the letter is received, the assistant or associate dean will direct the student to provide the director of Bucknell Student Health or the director of the Counseling & Student Development Center (as identified in the letter approving the leave of absence) the following documentation from their treating clinician(s) or physician(s): 1) diagnosis or clinical assessment; 2) summary of treatment, including progress in treatment and resolution of the issues that prompted the withdrawal; 3) current medications; 4) evaluation of the student’s readiness to resume their university responsibilities; and 5) any recommendations that the clinician/physician has provided to the student related to follow-up treatment or support. If after reviewing these materials a determination is made that the student may return, reinstatement procedures can be initiated. The director of Bucknell Student Health and director of the Counseling & Student Development Center may refer students applying for reinstatement for a behavioral assessment if they feel a more comprehensive assessment of the student’s eligibility for return is required based on the documentation provided.

A health leave of absence incurred after the second week of the semester will result in the recording of W (withdraw) grade for each course.

During a health leave of absence, students wishing to take academic courses elsewhere to transfer credits back to Bucknell must receive prior written permission from the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college. No more than two course credits per semester will be approved.

Administrative Leave of Absence

There are three types of an Administrative Leave of Absence: Academic Suspension, Disciplinary Suspension and Behavioral.

Academic Suspension – a separation denoting that a student must temporarily leave the University as imposed by the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college for reasons including, but not limited to, lack of attendance, academic misconduct, or GPA below University requirements. A student may be placed on an academic suspension for one academic year, or in exceptional circumstances one semester, as a result of poor academic performance over a single or several semesters.

An academic suspension imposed after the first two weeks of classes of the semester (after the drop-add period ends) will result in the recording of a grade of W for each course. Grades of W will not be factored into the student’s GPA.

During an academic suspension, students wishing to take academic courses elsewhere to transfer credits back to Bucknell must receive prior written permission from the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college. No more than two course credits per semester will be approved.

A student placed on an academic suspension from the University must apply for reinstatement by submitting a letter of intent to the appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college. The deadline for submission of this letter is June 1 for a fall semester reinstatement, Nov. 1 for a spring semester reinstatement, and March 1 for a summer session reinstatement. Such students may be required to provide additional documentation as deemed appropriate. The appropriate assistant or associate academic dean of their college may refer students applying for reinstatement for a behavioral assessment if they feel a more comprehensive assessment of the student’s eligibility for return is required.

A student who is reinstated to the University after an academic suspension may not apply for housing or register for classes until after the last semester of their imposed leave has concluded.

Disciplinary Suspension – a separation denoting that the student must temporarily leave the University as imposed by the dean of students as a result of Student Code of Conduct violations or other disciplinary reasons.

The written statement sanctioning the student with a disciplinary suspension will include the date when the suspension shall take effect, the earliest date that the student is eligible for reinstatement at the University, and any conditions that must be met before reinstatement is granted.

A disciplinary suspension imposed after the first two weeks of classes of the semester (after the drop-add period ends) will result in the recording of a grade of W for each course. Grades of W will not be factored into the student’s GPA.

A student placed on a disciplinary suspension may not transfer any academic credit completed within the period of suspension from other institutions of higher education.

A student may apply for reinstatement to the University for the semester after their suspension has ended by contacting the dean of students. In their written request for reinstatement, the student should discuss how they spent their time away from the University. This request should highlight areas of change for the better with a focus on how they have addressed the behavioral concern that resulted in their suspension. Any additional supporting documentation that is required as condition of their reinstatement should also be included. This request must be received before June 1 for a fall semester reinstatement, before Nov. 1 for a spring semester reinstatement, and before March 1 for a summer session reinstatement. Additionally, the other persons as appropriate.

or safety emergency, the dean of students reserves the right to consult with the parents, guardians or emergency contact of the individual in danger or the welfare of the individual and the wider University community, including disruptions to University operations. In situations characterized by a health

When disruptive conduct includes a threat of suicide, suicide attempt or serious self-harm, or harm to others, the dean of students must consider both and/or who refuses to sign limited releases (noted above), will have their case assessed on the behavioral circumstances by the dean of students.

is either ongoing or completed; and 4) whether, in the professional opinion(s) of the treating professional, the student is fit or unfit to return to studies and represent (or does not represent) a continuing threat to themselves or others. A student who refuses to comply with a behavioral assessment, information on four elements: 1) that the student has been seen; 2) the general nature of the problem; 3) that a course of treatment has been set and require that the treating professional discuss all the details or background of the student's case, but it must allow the treating professional to share discuss the student's general circumstances with the dean of students and other members of the committee, as appropriate. The release does not student may be required to take time away from the University to focus on the issues at hand in the form of an administrative leave of absence.

The result of a behavioral assessment may include relevant restrictions while the student remains on campus (e.g., the student might be required to refrain from consuming substances that intensify problematic behavior, to relocate to more appropriate housing on campus, etc.). In certain cases, the student may be required to take time away from the University to focus on the issues at hand in the form of an administrative leave of absence.

A student who is reinstated to the University after a behavioral leave may not apply for housing or register for classes until after the last semester of their imposed leave has concluded.

A behavioral leave of absence imposed after the first two weeks of classes of the semester (after the drop-add period ends) will result in the recording of a grade of W for each course. Grades of W will not be factored into the Student's GPA.

A student placed on a behavioral leave will typically not be permitted to transfer any academic credit completed within the period of the leave from other institutions of higher education.

A student may apply for reinstatement to the University for the semester after their behavioral leave has ended by contacting the dean of students. In their written request for reinstatement, the student should discuss how they have spent their time away from the University. This request should highlight areas of change for the better with a focus on how they have addressed the behavioral concern that resulted in their leave. Any additional supporting documentation that is required as condition of their reinstatement should also be included. This request must be received before June 1 for a fall semester reinstatement, before Nov. 1 for a spring semester reinstatement, and before March 1 for a summer session reinstatement. Additionally, the dean of students may refer students applying for reinstatement for a behavioral assessment if they feel a more comprehensive assessment of the student's eligibility for return is required.

A student who is reinstated to the University after a behavioral leave may not apply for housing or register for classes until after the last semester of their imposed leave has concluded.

BEHAVIORAL ASSESSMENT

In certain circumstances, a behavioral assessment is used to determine a student's ability to meet the responsibilities of continued attendance at Bucknell University. The Behavioral Assessment Committee is chaired by the dean of students and also includes the director of Bucknell Student Health and the director of the Counseling & Student Development Center. Students have the opportunity to fully and completely discuss their situation and provide all information they deem relevant to the committee. Students may request an independent professional review in accordance with the stated behavioral assessment procedures. The decision of the dean of students at the conclusion of the behavioral assessment process is final.

The result of a behavioral assessment may include relevant restrictions while the student remains on campus (e.g., the student might be required to refrain from consuming substances that intensify problematic behavior, to relocate to more appropriate housing on campus, etc.). In certain cases, the student may be required to take time away from the University to focus on the issues at hand in the form of an administrative leave of absence.

The student referred for a behavioral assessment is required to sign a release of information form in order that appropriate treating professionals may discuss the student's general circumstances with the dean of students and other members of the committee, as appropriate. The release does not require that the treating professional discuss all the details or background of the student's case, but it must allow the treating professional to share information on four elements: 1) that the student has been seen; 2) the general nature of the problem; 3) that a course of treatment has been set and is either ongoing or completed; and 4) whether, in the professional opinion(s) of the treating professional, the student is fit or unfit to return to studies and represents (or does not represent) a continuing threat to themselves or others. A student who refuses to comply with a behavioral assessment, and/or who refuses to sign limited releases (noted above), will have their case assessed on the behavioral circumstances by the dean of students.

When disruptive conduct includes a threat of suicide, suicide attempt or serious self-harm, or harm to others, the dean of students must consider both the welfare of the individual and the wider University community, including disruptions to University operations. In situations characterized by a health or safety emergency, the dean of students reserves the right to consult with the parents, guardians or emergency contact of the individual in danger or other persons as appropriate.
FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

If the student is a current financial aid recipient when they take a leave of absence or withdraw, federal regulations require the Office of Financial Aid to calculate the percentage of the semester completed and determine whether the University must return any of the federal financial aid to the federal government and/or Bucknell financial aid to the University. As a result, it is possible that the student will owe the University a balance because financial aid eligibility will have changed. In addition, federal loans that have been borrowed will go into repayment six months after the student drops below half-time enrollment unless they are on an approved leave of absence status as defined by the federal government for Title IV financial aid purposes. However, the federal Title IV leave of absence definition is more stringent than the Bucknell leave of absence definition. In the vast majority of cases, a University leave of absence does not qualify as a federal Title IV leave of absence. Therefore, the student’s official status to the federal government must be reported as a withdrawal and loan repayment will begin six months after the effective date.

In all cases of leave of absence and for cases of voluntary withdrawal, the student must reapply for financial aid. Students should contact the Office of Financial Aid for important deadlines.

Credit & Refund Policies/Tuition & Room Fees

Such fees will be credited to a student’s account subject to the conditions as outlined under “Credit and Refund Policies” on the finance office webpage. Questions regarding the policy should be directed to Bursar Services in the finance office at 570-577-3733 or e-mail bursar@bucknell.edu.